Green Laws

Codes, Ordinances & Public Policy

City Planning Tools

Urban Forestry Institute
U. S. Forest Service
Nashville, Tennessee
May 2013

Eric Kuehler        Aubrey Hammontree        Andra Johnson          Buck Abbey
Planning the Urban Forest

Why are trees important?

Public Policy & The Municipal Code

Nyssa aquatica

Charles Fryling Photo
Planning the Urban Forest

City Planning

How does it work?
As Set forth by law....

What is included?

What is left out?

Planning for Trees!

Quercus virginiana
Baton Rouge, Louisiana
Planning the Urban Forest

Planning Tools

Comprehensive Plans

Area Plans & Overlay Districts

Site Plans

Hon. President of The Live Oak Society
National Champion Live Oak
Mandeville, Louisiana

Times Picayune Photo
Ordinances & Codes

There are several types of green laws as well as other community policy that deal with community trees understand and know how to work.

They include:

Tree Ordinances
Tree Preservation Ordinances
Urban Forestry Ordinances
Other Green Laws
Building Codes
Subdivision Regulations
Zoning Law
Landscape Codes
Land Development Regulations, LDR’s
Planning the Urban Forest

Quercus virginiana
Street Tree Canopy
Metairie, Louisiana
Appreciation is expressed to John Wiley & Sons, Inc, Publishers, New York, for citing ideas and concepts from their book U.S. Landscape Ordinances.

U.S. Landscape Ordinances
Appreciation is expressed to the U.S. Forest Service and all people who are dedicated to trees and public landscapes.

Carya glabra, Tree No 117

Blue Cross-BlueShield of Louisiana

You are free to use this presentation for educational purposes as prepared by the LSU Green Law Research Project at Louisiana State University.

Please give credit for all photographs to The Robert Reich School of Landscape Architecture at LSU.

For more information call LSU at 225.578.1434